

YOUTHFUL FORGER GIVEN SENTENCE

Jesse Seevers Used Minister's License to Aid Him in Cashing Fraudulent Checks.

LIVES NEAR CROTHERSVILLE.

Admitted He Was Guilty When Placed in Richmond Jail and Asked For Speedy Trial.

Jesse Seevers, whose home is in Scott county, eight miles east of Crothersville, who claimed to be preparing himself for the ministry, plead guilty to a charge of forgery at Richmond Thursday and was given a sentence to the Jeffersonville Reformatory for a term of from two to fourteen years. He was arrested Wednesday at Lima, O., and taken to Richmond for trial. Seevers is well known in the southern part of the county and especially in Crothersville which place he told the officials was his home.

Seevers, who is but 22 years of age has been making it a profession to pass fraudulent checks at the various colleges. He had in his possession a book containing a list of thirty-nine colleges which he had defrauded during February. In a memorandum in the book the youth stated that he had "worked" Illinois, Indiana and Ohio, and expected to invade Michigan and Wisconsin. He gave some of his money to charity and did not seem to be depressed over his arrest. He had written Andrew Carnegie for a loan of $600 to assist him in his troubles and said he felt assured that he would not be disappointed as Mr. Carnegie "is a kind old chap."

Seevers had a very unique manner of working his game. A short time ago he was given a minister's license from Upland College and he used this effectively. He would present the license to the authorities of the various colleges and declare his intention to become a student. Later he would present his check which was always cashed, and that would be the last seen of Seevers until he was heard from in another town. He had several aliases which assisted him in escaping arrest. He has secured $75 from Earlham College, $10 from Oxford, O. College, and $98 from the Illinois Holiness College. He had deposits in several banks in the middle west.

As soon as Seevers reached the jail after his arrest he took a Bible from his suit case and spent several minutes in reading. He also had a number of religious songs in his possession. He asked the officers to be taken before the judge as soon as possible and his request was granted. He was arraigned and plead guilty, and seemed to be pleased with the dispatch with which his case had been conducted. He was taken to Jeffersonville today.

Seevers worked his game at Columbus, and the officers were after him when he was arrested. At Columbus he defrauded the business college by passing checks. He wrote to the secretary of the school asking for the particulars of the course of study. He gave his name as George W. Kinney, of Lafayette. The letter was answered and stated that the school seemed to be satisfactory and he would arrive the following week.

Seevers went there January 18, still using the name of Kinney. He pretended to enter the Columbus Business College and produced two checks, one for $40 and the other for $45. Both checks were drawn on the Merchants' National Bank of Lafayette and were signed by Sherman Kinney, both being made payable to George W. Kinney. The young man said Sherman Kinney was his father. He said he needed some ready money so Miss Williams advanced him $10 on the checks and accepted the rest in payment for tuition and other expenses. The checks were taken to the First National Bank there and in turn sent to Lafayette to be cashed. In the course of time the checks came back with the information that Kinney had no account at the Lafayette bank upon which the checks were drawn.

Seevers disappeared after giving the checks, and did not return to Columbus. The marshal, however, made an effort to locate him and found that his home was near Crothersville. Seevers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Seevers, and was regarded by his friends as a model young man. He left home about two years ago to study for the ministry, and his forgeries came as a great surprise to his acquaintances at home. On January 13th he was married to a young lady at Otterbein, Ind. Many of his friends believe that his trouble is due to a temporary mental strain from close study, and that the young man is not accountable for his actions.

As announced in the Republican yesterday the affidavit blanks for the mortgage exemptions are not secured from the county assessor, but from the county auditor. The measure, which was introduced in the house providing for this, was given a favorable report, but was not passed. Persons desiring to take advantage of the mortgage exemption law are required to follow the same law as last year.

One of the city work horses is sick and it was reported that it had scarlet fever. No quarantine card has been placed on the barn, although it has been relieved from its work for several days. The veterinarian pronounced that the animal was sick with catarrhal fever, however.

KEYS IN TROUBLE.

Man Who Bought Two Groceries On a Drunk.

W. A. Keys was arrested Thursday evening for intoxication. After the council meeting last night Mayor Swope held court and fined him $1 and costs. After remaining in jail over night he paid his bill and left for his home in Jennings county. Keys has been around Seymour much of the time for the last two or three months, has been drinking considerable and getting in and out of business.

He bought the Hoosier Cash Grocery some time ago. Later he sold it; in a short time took it back, then closed it for removal from town, but succeeded in finding another customer and disposed of the place.

A few weeks ago he purchased the William Schrier grocery on east Second. It is now closed, Keys having arranged to sell it to Edward McMillan who expects to take possession next week.

NOTTY QUESTION BEFORE COUNCIL

Members in A Dilemma Regarding Action on Ordinance to Increase Firemen's Salaries.

REGULAR SESSION IS HELD

Seymour Public Service Company Presents Two Bonds as Required by Franchise.

The city council met in regular session last night with Mayor Swope presiding and all the members present. The minutes of the previous sessions were read and upon the motion of Councilman Misch were approved.

The ordinance for an increase in the salaries of the city firemen was placed upon the third reading. The ordinance provides that each fireman shall receive $660 per year at the rate of $55 each month. Councilman Sherman Day moved that the ordinance be passed. Councilman Davison stated that he was not as strongly opposed to the increase in salaries as some believed he was, but was of the opinion that such an ordinance would not be legal as the council could not legally change the salary of any city officer for the time it was fixed by ordinance.

Councilman Davison read a copy of the letter written by Attorney-General T. M. Honan in which he gave an unofficial opinion stating that he believed the firemen were not officers and the salaries could therefore be increased. Later, however, it is said he gave the subject more consideration, and was in doubt as to the legality of the proposed ordinance. Upon motion of Councilman Davison final action upon the ordinance was postponed for several weeks until the matter was definitely decided.

Councilman Davison moved that the city engineer and street commissioner examine the Read-Jordan sewer which was giving some trouble. Upon motion of Councilman Davison Ira McConnell was instructed to hire a team for the removal of ashes.

Councilman W. R. Day moved that the city clerk receive bids for painting the old automobile factory. The motion was carried.

H. L. Hanley, secretary of the Seymour Public Service Company was present and offered the bonds which are required by his company. One bond is for $5,000 was presented and is to protect the city from damage suits which might result from the negligence of the company. This bond was signed by the Fidelity Guaranty Company of Maryland. The other bond which was given by the former grantees of the franchise was for a faithful performance of the contract, and was for $10,000. Mr. Hanley asked permission of the council to allow the company to sign this bond, but Councilman Davison is discussing the point said that he was of the opinion that the bond should be given by a surety company or individuals so that in case suit was brought it might be filed in this county. Should the bond be filed by the company, Mr. Davison stated, it would be necessary to institute such proceedings in Chicago as the principal offices of the company were located there. Mr. Hanley then stated that W. C. Bevis and E. A. Potter, president of the company, would sign the bond and it was agreed that such a bond would be satisfactory. The city attorney was instructed to inquire of the auditor of state regarding the financial condition of the surety company.

The council set Monday night as a time for examining the new lighting system. The members will be conveyed about the city in a body by the light company.

The bond of George Story, who was awarded the contract for removing the garbage, was accepted. Besides Mr. Story T. S. Blish also signed the bond which is for $1,000.

City Engineer E. B. Douglass reported that he had a plan for disposing of the surplus water on High street, and recommended that before any new tiles were laid a committee of councilmen examine the present sewer. The matter will be considered at the board of public works tonight.

Councilman Davison said that the report that he was in Richmond was several days too early, for he intended to go today. While there he will investigate the concrete streets which have been constructed in that city for several years.

The claim of Street Commissioner Isaac Burrell, for $10 for serving as special police was rejected upon the grounds that he was receiving pay as street commissioner and could not hold two remunerative offices at the same time.

The claims which were allowed are as follows:

Ira McConnell, labor.....	$18 00
James Jones, labor.....	16 20

YEGGMEN SENTENCED

Men Who Robbed Malott Store at Tunnelton Given Long Term.

Harry Adams and Carl Anderson, the men who were charged with robbing the Malott store at Tunnelton on January 5, were found guilty at their trial and given a sentence of from ten to twenty years. They also robbed the B. & O. S-W. depot and the postoffice which was located in the store.

The state introduced evidence to show that the articles which were found in the possession of the men were from the Malott store, and one witness testified that he purchased some of the goods and that they had the Malott name upon them. The case was tried before a jury, and within twenty minutes after the evidence was completed the sentences were agreed upon.

Should Be Happy.

Wherever Henry Klusman is he can be happy. His mother, Mrs. Mary Klusman of Seymour, called at the navy recruiting station Thursday with the request her son be allowed to enlist despite his age of 17. Klusman, according to his mother, since a child has been a devoted follower of Mars, growing happy at the prospect of any nation declaring war. He ran away from home and attempted to join the army and marine corps, but was refused because of his age. This was last week, but the boy has not returned home. The mother, fearing he would leave for good if he could not get her permission to enlist in something where he could fight, gave her consent.—Indianapolis Sun.

SCARLET FEVER UNDER CONTROL

Physicians are of The Opinion That Danger of More Widespread Epidemic is Over.

CONDITIONS MUCH IMPROVED.

Members of Medical Society Discuss "Scarlet Fever" at Their Regular Meeting.

The Jackson County Medical Society held its regular monthly meeting Thursday afternoon in the Library building. Rather an interesting coincident occurred in that the program for discussion was "Scarlet Fever," at a time when there is an epidemic here of the same disease. Probably this feature may have had something to do with the unusually large attendance. All of the physicians present took part in the discussion.

The physicians believe that the epidemic is under control and by the time of the expiration of the general closing notice, March 13, there will be little danger of additional cases. The very mild type of the disease prevailing at this time was especially commented upon, together with its relative uncertainty of diagnosis until the characteristic rash made its appearance on the skin. The consensus of opinion seemed to obtain that the mild cases was a source of greater menace to the public in the spread of the disease than these of the more severe types, owing to the fact that many of the cases were not sick enough to keep them off the streets and from attending public gatherings.

The subject of quarantine and its want of proper observation was a matter which deeply concerns the citizens as well as the physicians and Health Board. The course of the Health Board pursued so far was generally approved, but required the hearty cooperation of the people to make it effective. A general feeling among the physicians expressed as to the present condition seemed to be satisfactory, and very favorable to the control and elimination of the disease. However, the contagion of scarlet fever being peculiarly tenacious it is likely that there will be an occasional case until late spring when people will not be crowded into close rooms.

The period of incubation of the patients already exposed will have expired by the time limit of the general closing and the people may feel reassured that the physicians are doing everything possible to aid the health board in carrying out the instructions, and that the greatest danger from the disease is now over.

The bill to regulate the salaries of prosecutors as passed by the house yesterday provides that in counties of less than 71,000 people the salary is to be $50 per every 1,000 people to be paid by the county in addition to the $500 paid by the state. All fees go into the treasury. It can be readily seen that the bill, if it becomes a law, will make the prosecutor's office in this county a good one. Representative Branaman voted against the bill. As introduced in the senate the bill applied only to counties having over 71,000 and as it has been amended it will go back to the senate.

Judge J. H. Shea is in Indianapolis today. He is watching pretty closely the action of the legislature on the judicial bill, and is opposed to the plan to combine Lawrence with Jackson in one judicial circuit.

ELECTRIC CLOCK.

C. H. Ahlbrand Has Perfected Ingenious Arrangement.

C. H. Ahlbrand of the Union Hardware Company after much study and experimenting has perfected a plan by which the old clock in the rear part of the store is made to perform a new duty of turning on and off the night lights for the store. The electric wire to which these lights are attached is connected with the clock and by a very ingenious arrangement of wheels and connections the hour hand is made to turn on the power and lights at 9 p. m. and off at 5 a. m. As the store closes now at 6 p. m. the necessity of some one coming there at a later hour is avoided and the light is not burned for unnecessary time in the morning. By the arrangement it is not necessary for anyone to visit the place Sunday. Not only is it a great convenience but it is a money saver as it is figured that by not having to turn on the lights when the store closes in the evening and to turn them off at an early hour in the morning from $15 to $20 is saved in the course of the year. Mr. Ahlbrand tried to buy a clock that would do the work but was not able to find one. His own arrangement is inexpensive and has proved a perfect success. The old clock which has been giving perfect time for twenty-five years continues on that job and as it does not belong to the union has made no objection to the extra work.

M. L. THAYER RESIGNS.

T. H. Brown New Division Engineer of B. & O. S-W.

News has reached this city to the effect that M. L. Thayer, division engineer of the B. & O. Southwestern, has resigned that place, and that T. H. Brown, from the east has been appointed to succeed him. Mr. Thayer has been in the service of the B. & O. Southwestern for many years and is well known in this city, having had his office here for several years, but when the dispatchers were moved to Flora Mr. Thayer was taken with them. It is understood that Mr. Thayer has had several good offers of late and is contemplating accepting one. This is given as the cause of his resignation.

Elmer Pickett, foreman of the tin shop at the local B. & O. Southwestern shops, gave up that place Thursday morning and a man of the name of Rhoades from Grafton, W. Va., has been appointed as his successor. Mr. Pickett has been in the employ of the company for many years and during that time has filled his various situations in an acceptable manner. Just what Mr. Pickett will do is not known, but it is probable that he will go into business for himself.—Washington Herald.

Baptist Church Notice.

Because of the quarantine restrictions the church treasurer last week asked that the members of the church bring their contributions to the treasurer at the post office. Thirty-five responded. That did fairly well but there should be a hundred more this week. Bring your offerings to the treasurer by 9 o'clock Saturday night. Why not every member of the church respond to this request? m4d

THE EXPENSES OF ASSEMBLY

More Money Needed to Foot the Bills.

NOT ENOUGH APPROPRIATED

It Has Been Found That the Legislative Appropriation Bill Underestimated Expense of Session by About $7,000—But at That the Assembly Will Get Through on $13,000 Less Than That of 1909.

Indianapolis, March 3.—As estimated by Ed D. Donnell, the purchasing agent of the legislature, in a report made to the house committee on legislative expenses, the appropriation of $120,000 made at the beginning of the session to pay the expenses of the present legislature will be about $7,000 short of the necessary amount. This, however, is $13,000 less than the expense of the legislature of 1909, which cost the state $140,000. Of this $13,000 saved, more than $6,000 of it will be in the printing and stationery bills. Mr. Donnell was selected as purchasing agent because he is a practical printer and because of his knowledge of the amount of supplies necessary. Because the session has not yet ended it is impossible to tell what the total bill for supplies will be, but Mr. Donnell thinks the estimate he has made is a fair one.

The total expenditure for the salaries and mileage of senators will be $20,069. The payments to employees in the senate will total $21,484.50. In the house the salary and mileage for the full session is $40,347.20, and the payments to employees $24,559.50. The totals of these items in the senate is $41,484.50, and in the house $64,906.70.

A Model of Its Kind.

The house passed the cold storage bill, from the senate, with only four votes cast against it. The measure was not amended in the house, and was to go direct to the governor. The bill is said to be the first of its kind passed in any state of the Union, and the food and drug authorities of the state expect it to become a model for other states. It was suggested to H. E. Barnard, state food and drug commissioner, by Governor Marshall. Mr. Barnard wrote to H. W. Wiley, national chemist, for suggestions for the bill, and on Mr. Wiley's suggestion the measure was largely based. It was subsequently approved by the hotel keepers' association of the state and later, after some changes were made, by the state association of cold storage men. It limits to nine months the time that food products may be kept in cold storage, and provides for the labeling of cold storage products when offered for sale, at either wholesale or retail.

In Danger of Death.

In spite of the fact that the house passed the good roads bill in the teeth of a powerful lobby against it, the senate has shown no disposition to pay any attention to the bill, and it is now said that the bill stands a good chance of death. This is the bill which is aimed at the practice of "farming out" road tax contracts by corporations, a practice which men from every part of the state have declared is one detrimental to good roads.

The civil procedure bill, from the senate, designed to simplify pleadings in civil cases, was passed by the house by a vote of 56 to 24. The bill was amended in the house so as not to apply to pending litigation.

The house advanced the senate bill carrying a new state constitution to third reading. The minority members protested against the advancement of the measure on the afternoon of the day the bill had been laid on their desks in printed form, and threats to break the quorum were heard, but nothing came of them.

The constitution bill was later passed by the house by a strict party vote, the minority members filing protests as their names were called.

Good Roads Bill Perished.

The senate killed the highway commission bill, 18 votes being cast for it and 27 against it. This was one of the good roads bills favored by the good roads congress. This bill, drawn to create a state highway board and establish the office of state highway commissioner, also provided for a state highway fund and for state aid in the construction and maintenance of roads. The object of the bill was to furnish a means whereby roads in the state might be of uniformly good construction.

The license fee and restrictive features of the Proctor liquor regulation bill, as amended by the house, will not be disturbed by the senate and house conference committee. The conferees agreed that the house amendments concerning the license fees and restriction of saloons to one to each 500 population should stand. According to a member of the committee, the only important question under discussion by the committee is a plan to harmonize the bill's provisions as to what shall constitute a bad moral character for a saloon keeper and prevent him from obtaining a license.

The corrupt practices bill passed the house. The bill defines what are corrupt practices in connection with primaries, caucuses, conventions and elections, and provides penalties for violations.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES.

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Seymour women know how the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail to make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Seymour woman's words:

Mrs. D. B. Henderson, 523 Indianapolis avenue, Seymour, Ind., says: "I do not know what I would have done had it not been for Doan's Kidney Pills. My back pained me all the time and there was an extreme lameness through my loins and kidneys that inconvenienced me greatly. I also had pains in my head. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a supply and the use of four boxes not only removed the pain and lameness, but restored my strength and energy."

GOING TO PIECES

Disruption by Internal Warfare Threatens Tobacco Union.

Lexington, Ky., March 2.—Disruption by internal warfare appears to be the fate of the Burley Tobacco Union, which was formed three months ago to force a "cut out" of the 1911 burley tobacco crop in the states of Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia and Kentucky. Some of the members of the executive committee of the union are not in favor of the plans of other officers, and they have been called to meet in Lexington to discuss the action of the union. It is expected that the meeting will declare against a "cut out" and that the union should abandon the plan. Members of the burley society, the American Society of Equity and the Farmers' Union are here watching the situation and probably will take some action looking to the control of the burley tobacco production should the Burley Tobacco Union abandon its campaign.

SENATE FORCED BY FILIBUSTER

Big Appropriation Measures Brought to Front.

KILL SERVICE PENSION BILL

Senator Lodge's Point of Order Against Measure That Would Have Distributed $50,000,000 Among the Old Soldiers of the Country, Was Sustained and the Bill Was Ruled Out—Big Supply Bills Passed.

Washington, March 3.—On motion of Senator McCumber and with the approval of the friends of the tariff board bill, the senate, after considering the bill creating a tariff board from 11 o'clock until 5 last evening, proceeded to dispose of the bill as the unfinished business and took up general appropriation bills and passed the pension appropriation, diplomatic and consular, coast fortification and military academy bills.

The service pensions bill, carrying appropriations of nearly $50,000,000, which was passed by the house and which the president had indicated that he would veto, was put to sleep in the senate as far as this session of congress is concerned. The measure was offered as an amendment to the general pension bill, whereupon Senator Lodge made a point of order against its consideration, on the ground that it came under the rule that includes general legislation.

Senator Curtis resisted the point of order. He declared that if the federal government could afford to issue bonds to build the Panama canal and spend millions on the navy and the army, it ought to raise money to provide for the old soldiers.

Vice President Sherman sustained the point of order made by Senator Lodge and ruled the amendment out on the ground that it is general legislation.

Tariff Commission Bill Displaced.

It was not until 5 o'clock that the Republican insurgents consented to have the tariff commission displaced in favor of appropriation measures. This gave the senate the first respite it had in six hours from the Democratic filibuster against the tariff commission bill. An attempt had been made by the Democrats soon after the senate met to force the consideration of the appropriation bills, but this was voted down, 55 to 23, and the tariff commission bill was still before the senate as the regular order of business.

It was evident from this vote that the Republican regulars were standing by the compromise agreement they made with insurgents on the basis of the Lorimer case and intended to see that they got a vote if possible on the tariff commission proposition. The Republican insurgents soon became convinced that the Democratic filibuster was on in real earnest, and then the efforts to compromise were renewed. Several of the Democrats proposed to the Republican leaders that the Canadian reciprocity agreement be tacked to the tariff board bill as an amendment and that both measures be passed. The Republicans could not agree to this, and then the Democrats offered to vote on the tariff board bill provided the Republicans would agree to a vote on Canadian reciprocity immediately afterward. This offer also was rejected.

Drove Smoot Into a Corner.

Senator Bankhead of Alabama charged that the regular Republicans of the senate had entered into a conspiracy to defeat the big appropriation bill, apparently with a view to embarrassing President Taft. The Democrats succeeded in driving Senator Smoot into a corner in debate and forcing him to disclose the details of the bargain which the regular Republicans had made with the insurgents in regard to a vote on the Lorimer case. Senator Smoot's statement disclosed that the Republicans not only had agreed to make the tariff commission bill the unfinished business of the senate, but had pledged themselves to put it ahead of the appropriation bills, carrying hundreds of millions of dollars.

Senator Bankhead declared that he wished to show the Republicans up in their true light, and he therefore moved that the senate proceed to the consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill. This was voted down, 56 to 24, the Republican senators who had made their deal for a vote on the Lorimer case again standing solidly with the insurgents. "The senate," said Mr. Bankhead, "seems determined to place the appropriation bills back of the tariff board bill, and I want the country to know that the Republicans will be responsible for the necessity for an extra session."

One or two further efforts were made by the Democrats to force consideration of the appropriation bills before the insurgents finally hoisted a signal of distress and consented to their agreement to have the tariff commission displaced.

It was then that the senate got down to the only business that it had transacted in two days with the exception of the vote on the Lorimer case. In the one hour it passed four of the general appropriation bills, carrying altogether about $174,000,000.

BUY AT HOME AND BEAT THE BOGUS SALESMAN.

Too Much Risk Involved in Patronizing the Peddler.

Scarcely a month passes that it does not bring a report from some rural community of fraudulent sales or fraudulent projects of some sort being palmed off on the farmers by smooth talking salesmen. The latest comes from Wisconsin and is in the nature of a kick at the long suffering oil companies. More properly speaking, it is an objection to a certain oil company, a carload of whose product was sold among the farmers last summer and which did not live up to its agreement as to the quality of the oil, says the American Agriculturist.

A canvasser drove through the country from house to house, taking advance orders for kerosene, gasoline and a paint oil which he offered as a substitute for linseed oil. The samples he carried with him were apparently first class, and orders were taken with the understanding that the product delivered was to be equally good. The kerosene was sold at 17 cents per gallon. It was furnished in barrels, which were to be taken back by the company when empty and a rebate of $1 given. The barrels were guaranteed not to leak.

When the oil arrived most of the barrels leaked badly, and in some cases the loss was very heavy. The oil itself proved to be of a very unsatisfactory quality and in many cases entirely unfit for use. Among the number of farmers who consider that they were swindled in the deal is one who writes that he is unable to use the kerosene in lamps at all, but has transferred it to a tight receptacle and will keep it to use on Canada thistles and quack grass.

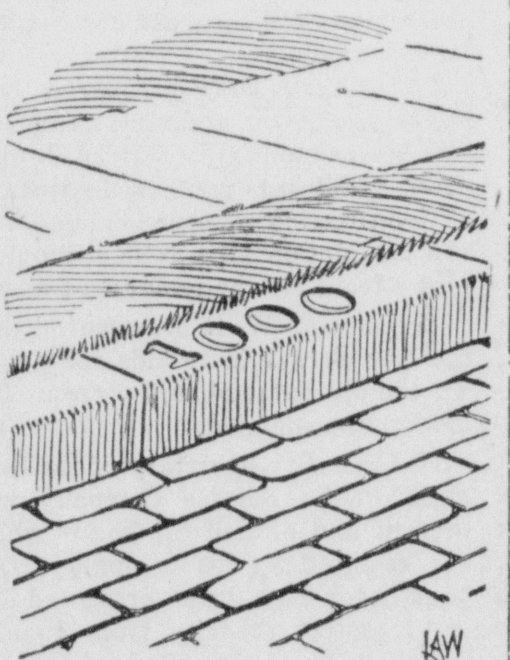

In cases of this kind there is apparently no practical means of redress. Purchasers either deposit their money in advance or pay it immediately upon delivery. It is much safer and usually more satisfactory to deal with some well established, well known local concern. Then in case of dissatisfaction there is always an easy means of adjustment.

corners is being tried with satisfactory results in Pasadena, Cal., according to the Technical World.

The numbers and letters are stenciled by painters employed by the city. They are in black and about one and one-half inches high.

This is a system which would please the often puzzled stranger in a city or town. It facilitates the finding of the house he so often wastes hours in hunting.

The Public Health.

In cities having an active board of health with a competent corps of inspectors less responsibility rests upon the individual regarding sanitary precautions, but in lesser cities and towns every home owner should be vigilant to keep his or her premises neat and clean.

Garbage thrown about indiscriminately is just as much of a menace to health in a village as in a city. As to neatness, tin cans and ash piles, with a miscellaneous lot of rubbish, are far too common in small centers of population. Even if not dumped in the home ground the slovenly owners throw it upon the nearest vacant lot or in the alley.

This should constitute a crime punishable only by imprisonment, for it is a menace to public health, and may be the indirect cause of many deaths. Cleanliness in person, in character and in surroundings exerts a considerable influence in molding clean characters. The choice lies with you.

Let Your Goods Be Seen.

In trimming your windows try, if possible, to have the articles you have on display no higher than the level of the eye. The upper part of the window, of course, requires decoration to add completeness of detail, but you will get better results if the goods you have on sale are so placed as to command the attention without effort of all who glance into the window.—Trade.

Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water, and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Home of Swamp-Root, Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y. on every bottle.

FOOLISH JOKE ENDED IN ONE BROKEN HEAD

And It Is a Wonder There Were Not More.

Trenton, N. J., March 3.—A practical joke which nearly resulted seriously was perpetrated at a dinner given at the Trenton Country Club. Among the diners were leading business men of Trenton and an official of the New Jersey state hospital for the insane, whose grounds are adjacent to those of the club. While the dinner was in progress this official received a 'phone call which he said conveyed the information that the inmates of one of the violent wards had escaped.

About fifteen minutes after the doors of the room in which the dinner was held were smashed in and fourteen men attired in straw hats, linen dusters and carrying clubs and farm implements burst in. The diners thought they were being attacked by escaped lunatics. Colonel M. R. Margerum seized a bottle and dealt one of the intruders a blow over the head. The supposed lunatic fell and for a time it looked as if there would be a real fight. The joke was finally explained, although not to the entire satisfaction of all the guests.

FIRE A CONSTANT MENACE. IS YOUR TOWN PREPARED?

Well Organized Communities Constantly on Guard.

Every well organized community is careful to protect the property of its inhabitants from the ravages of fire. The spark from a match might be the means of destroying in a few hours that which it has taken a town years to build.

A good organization of fire fighters is an asset not to be lightly considered. It should be the pride of every town to have its fire fighting corps in readiness.

Give them every possible assistance in the way of up to date equipment, etc., making their work effective.

In Oak Park, Cal., new equipment is constantly being added to the fire department in an effort to make it equal to the demands of the rapidly growing suburban community. A fire station, a horse drawn hose cart, proficient officers and paid fire fighters are among the additions of the last two or three months.

A new system is about to be inaugurated in having paid call men stationed in different sections of Oak Park, so as to insure quick response to alarms from any part of the district.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY.

Every Progressive Community Should Have One.

Every community now without one should organize a civic improvement society.

At the outset, or, indeed, at all times, it is best not to cumber the organization with many rules, else the restrictions will be so many and so hard to live up to that many members become discouraged at the start. But one rule is really needed, and that is that every member agrees to devote some time personally to the work of the society, either in gathering funds, superintending work or other active committee duties.

There are plenty of opportunities for active work in every small town, and no resident need go out of his own premises to note some surrounding spot that merits more or less attention in order to elevate the general tone of the neighborhood. Has your community a live society? If not, cannot you be the organizer of one? Our best communities, those that prove most attractive to home seekers, have each had a live society for years. Without at least one no place makes a healthful growth.

Making Level Street Crossings.

A street improvement contemplated in Binghamton, N. Y., which will be appreciated by all pedestrians is the plan to raise all paved street intersections wherever possible to a level with the curb. The experiment was made on Main street when the new brick pavement was laid and has proved highly satisfactory. The brick is on a level with the walk at the street intersection, and there is no downward step. This is especially beneficial to old persons, women with gocarats and cripples. It will be impossible to improve the central portion of the city in this manner on account of the street car intersections at the corners, but it is proposed to make the repairs on other corners wherever there is a brick pavement, and the move is meeting with general public approval.

If You Want the Farmer's Money.

Let commercial clubs and chambers of commerce look after the local conditions and see that the concerns engaged in buying from the farmers transact business fair and not look for three times the profit that they should have. When fairness is found in the local markets then the farmer will not find it profitable to dispose of his products through the commission departments of the big mail order concerns.

Farm and Garden

BROWN ROT CONQUERED.

Belief That Worst Foe of Stone Fruit
Growers Is Under Control.

The Rural New Yorker says that brown rot, the most destructive fungous disease known to the peach orchardist, has finally been put under control. J. H. Hale of Georgia and Connecticut paid his respects to the brown rot disease in the following terms: "The brown rot is so great a factor for evil in the raising of peaches for the market that in a few years more it would have accomplished the complete failure of my orchard plant in the state of Georgia. We can master or control every other enemy of the peach by up to date methods and precautions, but until now we have had no weapon that would touch the brown rot fungus." And then he continued to say that "the use of the self boiled lime sulphur spray as a foliage treatment for the peach tree, recently discovered by W. M. Scott of the United States department of agriculture, alone would swing the future status of my fortune from failure to success."

The importance of this spray to Mr. Hale reaches to every other peach grower in the country, with somewhat less force, except perhaps, to orchardists in the arid regions of the west where the climatic conditions are unfriendly to the career of the destructive fungus. In the early peach section of Georgia the work of Mr. Scott means the restoration of prosperous peach growing, where recently the industry has had to be abandoned solely on account of brown rot. Gradually in the past fifteen years the peach belt has been pushed farther south into the humid regions of Georgia for the sake of producing earlier fruit. It is here that the rot has worked the most utter ruin.

BROWN ROT OF PEACH.

[Thin the fruit, destroy the mummies, spray with self boiled lime sulphur and arsenate of lead. Directions given in circular of Virginia agricultural experiment station.]

While in general it is true that the coastal plains are hardest hit, it is a fact that wherever there are stone fruits raised in abundance there is brown rot present, waiting only the awakening touch of the friendly dampness to bring it to life, when in a few days it will devour a large part or all of the profits of the orchard. In a recent year D. M. Wertz of Waynesboro, Pa., a large orchardist located in the mountain region, where peach trees are assumed to be comparatively safe from brown rot, lost twenty carloads, or about one-third of his crop, from a sudden outbreak of the fungus.

A man is not master of his farm unless he has a familiarity with each acre's value and each acre's ability. It is useless in these days of high priced land to bother with average yields. It is not wise to wait until compulsion causes one to take care of the fertility of the soil.

Feeding Mangels.

The use of roots and especially mangels for dairy cows is still much practiced in many portions of the United States and Canada. The English farmers say that mangels should not be fed until they have been stored about three months for the reason that during the period of storing the mangel gains much in sugar.—Hoard's Dairyman.

Chemicals With Manure.

This is the way some of them use manure when fertilizer is to go on the crop: A load of manure is put in the spreader and thirty to forty pounds of the chemicals scattered over it. The result is that the whole thing is evenly scattered.—Rural New Yorker.

The Way With Weeds.

Possession is said to be nine points of law. This is certainly true of weeds. When they once get possession of a field it takes about nine times the labor to get rid of them than would be needed if they had been held in check from the start.

Map out a plan for farm operations for the ensuing year and then stick to it until you have a better.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

MARCH 5, 1911

Elijah Goes up by a Whirl Wind into Heaven. 2 Kings 2: 1-11

GOLDEN TEXT:—Enoch walked with God: and he was not: for God took him. Gen. 5: 24.

As we come to Elijah's farewell to earth for the present we might with great profit review and ponder his direct messages from the Lord, which, if I have counted correctly, were just eight (I Kings xvii. 2, 8; xviii. 1; xix. 9, xxi. 17, 28; II Kings i. 3, 15). In the previous chapter in connection with the messages from heaven to Elijah notice how God observes all that is done for or against Him, and also how He tells His servants when to go or stay. "The ways of man are before the eyes of the Lord, and He pondereth all his goings" (Prov. v. 21). Note the fire from heaven in chapter i. 10, 12, and compare Rev. vi. 5.

We should have noticed in last lesson the penitence of Ahab and the Lord's forbearance and long suffering (I Kings xxi. 27-29). Truly He is willing that any should perish (II Pet. iii. 9).

Now we came in our lesson of today to something wholly unique in the Bible story, for, although Enoch also was translated, we have no record of the incidents connected therewith. Only these two have ever left the earth without dying, but a great company will have this privilege when Jesus shall come to the air for His church (I Cor. xv. 51, 52; I Thess. iv. 16-18). There is a fearful record in Rev. xix. 20, of two men who shall be cast into the lake of fire without dying.

This lesson story of the translation of Elijah and the beautiful devotion of Elisha is one of the most fascinating in Scripture and intensely practical. They are more intimately associated here than anywhere else, and their names, which are mentioned over twenty times in our lesson and signify "My God is Jehovah" and "My God is salvation," are so suggestive of Him with whom they both walked.

Elisha's oft repeated "As the Lord liveth and as thy soul liveth I will not leave thee" (verses 2, 4, 6) remind us of the devotion of Ruth to Naomi and of Ittai to David for the sake of the God of Israel (Ruth i. 16, 17; II Sam. xvi. 21).

The expressions "So they went," "So they came," "They two went on," "They two stood," "They two went over," "They still went on and talked" (verses 2, 4, 6, 7, 8, 11), suggest to us the possibility of such a fellowship with the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, seeing no one but Jesus only with ourselves and so occupied with Him that we shall be blind and deaf to all but Him (Mark ix. 8; Acts xxii. 11). The four places mentioned are easily suggestive of different stages of Christian experience, Gilgal reminding us of the reproach of Egypt rolled away, the past under the blood (Josh. v. 9, 10). Bethel tells of visions of God, ministering angels, etc.; Jericho was where the new captain appeared to Joshua, and the thirteenth round of the city brought down the walls.

All this indicates progress in the divine life, but there is always more for us to enjoy, and we will increasingly possess our possessions if we whole heartedly follow on (Obad. xvii; Hos. vi. 3).

To Elijah's question, "Ask what I shall do for thee," Elisha promptly replied, "Let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me" (verse 9). When Elijah considered what he had passed through we do not wonder that he said to the man who wanted a double portion of his spirit, "Thou hast asked a hard thing." Few are filled with the spirit just for that reason. It is a hard thing—not hard for God to grant, but for us to be willing to receive, according to Luke xiv. 26, 27, 33. Many are called, but few are chosen, for the same reason.

I have often tried to picture these two men as they walked on together. We may not know which way Elijah looked, but there can be no doubt about Elisha, for his receiving his heart's desire depended upon his seeing Elijah when he was taken from him. How could there be a more steadfast beholding of a person? If we looked up as steadfastly into heaven as Stephen did (Acts vii. 55) there would be more of Jesus seen in our lives.

Well, the whirlwind came, and the horses and chariot of fire, and Elijah was taken, and Elisha saw it, and, rending his own mantle in two pieces, he took up the mantle of Elijah that fell from him and went back and stood by Jordan. Elijah is gone, but not so the God of Elijah.

With the mantle of Elijah he smote the waters and said, "Where is the Lord God of Elijah?" The waters divided, and Elisha went over, and the sons of the prophets who were watching said, "The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha." Some people took knowledge of Peter and John that they had been with Jesus, and there should be a savor of Him in the lives of all His people (Acts iv. 13; II Cor. ii. 14, 15). To the sons of the prophets' persistent plea that they might go and search for Elijah, Elisha finally yielded. They returned after three days of vain searching and confessed that they could not find him. There may be such searching when the church has been taken. We next see Elijah in Matt. xvii alive and well.

HAVE YOU TRIED PAXTINE

The Great Toilet Germicide?

You don't have to pay 50c or $1.00 a pint for listerian antiseptics or peroxide. You can make 16 pints of a more cleansing, germicidal, healing and deodorizing antiseptic solution with one 25c box of Paxtine,—a soluble antiseptic powder, obtainable at any drug store.

Paxtine destroys germs that cause disease, decay and odors,—that is why it is the best mouth wash and gargle, and why it purifies the breath, cleanses and preserves the teeth better than ordinary dentifrices, and in sponge bathing it completely eradicates perspiration and other disagreeable body odors. Every dainty woman appreciates this and its many other toilet and hygienic uses.

Paxtine is splendid for sore throat, inflamed eyes and to purify mouth and breathe after smoking. You can get Paxtine Toilet Antiseptic at any drug store, price 25c and 50c, or by mail postpaid from The Paxtine Toilet Co., Boston, Mass., who will send you a free sample if you would like to try it before buying.

Nonpartisanship in Action.

No one could have believed that Governor Marshall, his helots of his masters, would seriously put forth the lament that the unbecoming and deplorable element of partisanship has been admitted to debate over the new constitution. Yet it is now indulged; and the suggestion is that the Republicans should have joined in heartily to perfect the proposed constitution, instead of making it a party issue, with a view to next year's campaign.

Nonpartisan action for the public welfare is something that the mind of Governor Marshall is incapable of conceiving. He thinks in terms of party and in no other terms whatever. Any chance of this proposed constitution being a nonpartisan matter was deliberately and unavowedly destroyed by him when he took it into a secret party caucus and bound the membership to its support. The program included, moreover, the gag rule upon all amendment and discussion whatever, except in subsequent sessions of the caucus, and the spirit behind that program was accurately denoted by the remark of the Governor's spokesman in the Senate that the conduct of the new constitution was no concern of any Republican member.

There has been no sign of intelligent and independent statesmanship in this Legislature, but always and everywhere there has been the crack of the party whip and the thud of the party club. Democrats who dared to brave the wrath of the King Caucus have been disciplined by sneers and the defeat of their bills. The ne plus ultra of achievement has been, not good legislation at all, but platform pledges of one sort and another.

The arbitrament of everything has been the party caucus, and upon its decrees the members as a whole, Democratic and Republican, have been compelled to act blindly, often without opportunity for debate, sometimes without seeing copies of the measures put on their passage, always with a procedure resembling a deliberative Assembly much less than it resembles a directors' meeting of Union Pacific and Standard Oil.

Nothing could be more ludicrous and senseless than for Governor Marshall and his apologists to look up for a moment from the smoking road roller and emit a groan at the unaccountable perversity of Republican legislators in not giving to the output of the Democratic caucus the impartial and thorough consideration that should be exercised by men of judgment and reason.—Indianapolis Star.

EARLY CITIZEN DEAD.

Casper Schaefer Passes Away Peacefully Thursday Evening.

Casper Schaefer, one of the early and most highly respected citizen of Seymour, died Thursday evening at 8:20 o'clock at his home north of the city. He had been in declining health for several months.

Mr. Schaefer was born in Hesselndorf, Germany, April 28, 1828. When a young man he came to America and located in Louisville, but after remaining there a few years he located at Seymour. He was the proprietor of the Mansion House, one of the leading hotels of the city and conducted a very successful business.

For a number of years he was engaged in the ice business, but for the last fifteen years he has been retired from active business activities.

In 1885 he was married to Miss Josephine Richart, who died in 1872. Three years later he married Miss Kate McCaffrey, who survives him. Besides his wife, he leaves six children, L. W., of Lafayette; Mrs. Mary McGuire, of Quincy; George, of Indianapolis; Mrs. Anna Moore of Indianapolis; Mrs. Lizzie Hartlein, of Evansville; and N. J., of Detroit. He is also survived by seven grandchildren.

The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock from the family residence, conducted by the Rev. Father Conrad, of the St. Ambrose Catholic church, of which the deceased was a member. Burial at the Catholic cemetery.

CHANGES MADE IN DISTRICTS

Legislative Caucus Places Decatur County in the Fourth District.

SEVERAL PLANS PROPOSED.

Under Arrangement Jackson and Lawrence Will Be Joined in Senatorial District.

The democrats are having a hard time to agree upon a reapportionment bill which will make all the districts in Indiana democratic. They have tried several different arrangements, but about the time they agree upon one plan some of the prospective democratic candidates make serious objections and another method is suggested. The sole purpose of the gerrymander, of course, is to provide for such an apportionment so as many of the districts as possible will be democratic. As Jackson county gives a substantial democratic majority she has been tossed about from one proposed district to another with the hope that her majority can be used to overcome a republican majority of another county.

A joint caucus was held Thursday and it is thought that the final apportionment has been made. According to this arrangement the counties in the fourth congressional district remain but Decatur is added from the sixth. The sixth district has long been a republican stronghold, and was causing the democrats considerable worry as to how the majority could be reduced.

There will be a change in the senatorial district, however, and Jackson will be joined with Lawrence, Heretofore, Brown, Jackson and Washington have formed the senatorial district, and it was decidedly democratic. Lawrence county has a good republican majority but the legislature is in hopes that the democratic majority of this county will overcome the republican majority.

Jackson and Lawrence were formerly in one district, and as a result a republican senator was elected. Under the new arrangements, Brown, Johnson and Monroe will be entitled to one senator, and Clark, Washington and Orange will be joined in one district. The legislative plan is to give Jackson county one representative.

It was practically agreed at the caucus to enact the measure providing for the above changes, although there was some dissatisfaction upon the part of several of the legislators regarding a few counties in southern Indiana. If these cannot be placed in a more satisfactory way the caucus bill will be adopted.

It has been suggested that Jackson and Lawrence counties be joined in a judicial district, and such a bill has been passed in the house and has received the favorable report of the senate committee. No final action has been taken, however.

The Beginning of Satin.

The discovery of the principle of the manufacture of satin was a pure accident. The discovery was made by a silk weaver named Octavio Mai. During a dull period of business one day he was pacing before his loom, not knowing how to give a new impulse to his trade. As he passed the machine each time he pulled short threads from the warp and, following an old habit, put them into his mouth and rolled them about, soon after spitting them upon the floor. Later he discovered a little ball of silk upon the floor of his shop and was astonished at the brilliancy of the threads. He repeated the experiment and eventually employed various mucilaginous preparations and succeeded in making satin.

A Match For the Bishop.

In the days when church disestablishment was being very warmly discussed in Wales Mr. Lloyd George won great local repute by his campaign against the bishop of St. Asaph.

At a meeting held in Flintshire the chairman, a Welsh deacon with very strong convictions, got up to introduce Mr. Lloyd George.

"Gentlemen," he said, "I have to introduce to you tonight the member for the Carnarvon boroughs. He has come here to reply to what the bishop of St. Asaph said the other night about Welsh disestablishment. It is my opinion, gentlemen, that the bishop of St. Asaph is one of the biggest liars in creation. [Cheers.] But I am glad to say that we have a match for him in our speaker tonight."

Mr. Lloyd George afterward said the only thing that saved him from going to pieces was the roar of applause that followed the speaker's astounding statement.

A Frank Critic.

A wealthy widow whose goodness of heart outmatches her fairness of face has an old Scottish servant, William by name. Her husband had been a very handsome man, and one day when she was looking at his portrait on the mantelpiece in the sitting room and William was fussing, round the grate in a moment of impulse she asked, "William, what do you think made such a handsome man as Colonel S. marry such a plain woman as me?"

William looked from the portrait to the speaker, meditated a second and answered, "Must have been heaven's will, mem!"

An Honest Deal.

In one of our states not many years ago it was a sport and a science in some sections to stuff the ballot boxes so that no matter how the people voted the machine candidates won. In one little town an enthusiast for honest government was named as one of the board of three election judges. His two companions were ready to slip into the ballot box enough votes to elect their man, but they could not get the honest judge to leave the voting booth long enough for them to turn the trick. Finally, after he had refused to leave long enough for lunch, all three went to a neighboring hotel for a hasty meal. The honest judge, who was also very devout, put the ballot box on the floor between his feet and, shutting his eyes, bowed his head for several minutes while he asked the blessing on the meal.

While he was doing this the other two stuffed the box, and the machine candidates had a staggering majority. And to this day the honest judge advertises the fact that for once he made the election judges give the people of his town an honest deal.—St. Louis Republic.

Laugh a Little Bit.

Here's a motto just your fit—
Laugh a little bit.
When you think you're trouble hit
Laugh a little bit.
Look misfortune in the face,
Brave the beldam's rude grimace,
Ten to one 'twill yield its place
If you have the wit and grit
Just to laugh a little bit.

Cherish this as sacred writ—
Laugh a little bit.
Keep it with you, sample it—
Laugh a little bit.
Little ills will soon beids you,
Fortune may not sit beside you,
Men may mock and fame deride you,
But you'll mind them not a whit
If you laugh a little bit.
—Edmund Vance Cooke.

An Obedient Czar.

There is a very pompous foreign nobleman, a baron, who is residing temporarily in Washington. The baron, who, if report speaks true, is somewhat henpecked, invited some men a night or two ago to play cards in his house. The meeting was a convivial one, and all went "merry as a marriage bell." It grew late, and fears were expressed by the party that they were trespassing upon the kindness of the mistress of the house, who, by the way, was not present.

"Not at all gentlemen; not at all. Play as long as you please. I am czar here," said the master of the mansion.

"Yes, gentlemen, play as long as you please," said a silvery voice, and all rose immediately as the baroness stood before them, "but as it is after 1 o'clock the czar is going to bed." He went.

He Was Sensitive.

The Japanese servant is very sensitive. "A lady friend of mine," says Evelyn Adam in "Behind the Shoji," "possessed a very good manservant, a perfect treasure. She happened to be an artist, and every day when she went to paint in the woods this treasure carried her easel. One afternoon he returned without an important piece of it. Though greatly annoyed, she said nothing, knowing that her 'pearl' was sensitive to criticism, like most of his race. But the effort at self control was entirely wasted, for the man came next day to give formal notice. 'Why do you wish to leave?' the mistress asked. 'Surely you are not upset over the easel. I said nothing about it, did I?' 'No,' the man admitted, 'but you made a difficult face.' And he went before luncheon."

Like His Gun.

A Wyoming cowboy called to see Owen Wister in Philadelphia and was permitted to inspect the author's city outfit. As he casually examined an opera hat it sprang open. "A self cocking hat," said the cowpuncher admiringly. "Now, don't that beat hell!" —Everybody's.

He Thought of Her.

"It must have been frightful," said Mrs. Bossim to her husband, who was in the earthquake. "Tell me what was your first thought when you awakened in your room at the hotel and heard the alarm."

"My first thought was of you," answered Mr. Bossim.

"How noble!"

"Yes, first thing I knew a vase off the mantel caught me on the ear, then a chair whirled in my direction, and when I jumped to the middle of the room four or five books and a framed picture struck me all at once."

Even after saying that he affected to wonder what made her so angry for the remainder of the evening.—National Monthly.

FORGED CHECKS
TO PAY HIS WAY

Young Divinity Student Wanted
An Education.

INTENDED TO PAY MONEY BACK

In the Meantime, However, His Latest Venture Practiced at the Expense of Earlham College, Got the Police After Him and Jesse Seavers Now Faces a Term of Imprisonment at Jeffersonville.

Richmond, Ind., March 3.—From Lima, O., where he was arrested at the Y. M. C. A., Jesse Seavers, who recently defrauded Earlham college of $75, was brought to Richmond. Seavers came to Earlham about a month ago, and, after getting acquainted with several members of the faculty, signed up for three courses in preparation for the ministry. He presented a check on a Lafayette bank, which was certified by the college treasurer and cashed by Seavers at the Union National bank. Seavers immediately disappeared.

Seavers entered a plea of guilty and was fined $10 and sentenced to the Jeffersonville reformatory for two to fourteen years. Seavers told his attorney that he was prompted to raise money by fraudulent means in order to get funds to pursue his religious studies. He intended, he said, to keep a strict account of all money thus obtained, and, when able to do so, to reimburse colleges and individuals whom he had defrauded.

According to the memorandums kept by Seavers, the total amount of money he had obtained from colleges and individuals was $698.

FOUND AT LAST

Escaped Georgia Convict Was Chief of Police at Danville, Va.

Danville, Va., March 3.—The man who for five years has held the position of chief of police of Danville under the name of R. E. Morris was shown to be Edgar Stripling, a murderer and an escaped prisoner from Harris county, Georgia, who gained his liberty while serving a life term. He is being taken back to Georgia to begin the sentence pronounced against him fourteen years ago. Without warning he was confronted by an officer with requisition papers to carry him back, and he at once acknowledged his identity, making no effort to deny it. Not for a moment did he lose his nerve as he replied, "Yes, I am the man you want. I am guilty."

He was in uniform when arrested. In a steady voice he was heard to say over the telephone, "I won't be home tonight. Mr. Smith has come for me. You know, down in Georgia."

The arrest of Stripling occurred on the evening of the expiration of his term as chief of police of this city.

The board of police commissioners have a meeting scheduled for tonight for the election of a chief. Morris was a candidate for chief, and although he was being opposed, every indication pointed to his re-election.

FINALLY FILLED IT

New French Premier Makes Up His Cabinet at Last.

Paris, March 3.—Prime Minister Monis has completed his cabinet and the members called in a body on President Fallieres in the Elysee palace. Crowds gathered in the street outside the palace and cheered ironically as the new cabinet filed in. The ministry as finally constructed is as follows:

Minister of foreign affairs, M. Cruppi; minister of marine, M. Theophile Delcasse; minister of war, M. Henri Bertaux; minister of finance, M. Caillaux; minister of justice, M. Perrier; minister of public instruction, M. Steeg; minister of public works, M. Dumont; minister of commerce, M. Masse; minister of agriculture, M. Jules Pams; minister of labor, M. Paul Boncour; minister of the colonies, M. Messimy.

City Merger Proposed.

Urbana, Ill., March 3.—As a result of a speech delivered by President Taft on his recent visit here the mayors of Urbana and Champaign have inaugurated a movement to unite the two cities. A committee from each city will discuss ways and means.

HENRY S. BOUTELL

Illinois "Lame Duck" to Be
New Minister to Portugal.

Washington, March 3.—President Taft is going to send his "Boanerges of the Tariff"—Congressman Henry Sherman Boutell of Illinois—to Portugal as minister from the United States to succeed Minister Gage, who recently resigned. Boutell was dubbed "the Boanerges of the Tariff" by President Taft because of his enthusiastic defense of the Aldrich law. He with his family will depart for Lisbon shortly.

INDIANA CAPITOL IS GRACED BY OWEN BUST

Women's Grateful Tribute to Memory of Great Man.

Indianapolis, March 3.—Robert Dale Owen was honored for his efforts to put woman on a legal equality with man in Indiana, women's suffrage was mentioned as the next step in the advancement of propaganda to which he lent his strength and a bronze bust of Owen was given to the state of Indiana with appropriate ceremony at the statehouse.

Governor Marshall accepted the gift with a tribute to the women of the state, who, he said had done great honor to one the men had forgotten, but whose work was forever preserved in the great school system of the state. In accepting the bust from the Robert Dale Owen Memorial association, Governor Marshall paid tribute to the appreciation and the energy shown by the women of Indiana in erecting a monument to the memory of a man who had done so much for them.

MORE BANK ROBBERS

This Time the Town of Matthews Is the Scene of Their Operations.

Marion, Ind., March 3.—The Farmers State bank of Matthews was entered by robbers, the safe blown and $3,000 taken. A horse and buggy were stolen from Frank Kirkwood, a farmer, and with this the robbers escaped with their loot. They pried open a rear door of the bank building and presumably worked the combination on the safe. The money drawer was then blown open by a charge of nitroglycerine. The force of the explosion twisted and bent the iron of the safe, and only one person in Matthews heard it.

Senator Kern's Secretary.

Terre Haute, Ind., March 3.—Claude Bowers of this city has been appointed private secretary to Senator-elect John W. Kern. Mr. Bowers is a member of the board of public works of Terre Haute, and was twice a candidate for congress in the Fifth district.

WORD OF ADVICE TO BOOSTERS

One True Way of Showing Interest
In Home Town.

DO YOUR BUYING HERE.

Local Producers and Dealers Deserve and Need Patronage of Their Fellow
Townsmen—Straight From the Shoulder
Talk From Sedalia, Mo.

No man can be a true booster who is selfish. Nor can one be a booster who harbors petty jealousies and cannot rejoice in the success and prosperity of his neighbor or competitor. Nor can one who bears malice be a sincere booster, for malice is the property of a small soul, and a small soul has no place in the big things of this life. We may proclaim ourselves boosters, we may join the ranks of a booster club and wear a booster button, yet by our acts shall we be known, and until petty jealousy, envy and selfishness—those things, should they exist, that tend to warp and shrivel men's souls—are eliminated and substituted by unselfish thoughts and a feeling of good will toward each other we cannot hope to succeed.

Men may meet and feast together, they may talk of things that will benefit the city and community, and, while such meetings are always beneficial and instructive to a certain extent, yet it is the acts of men that produce results. How many citizens of Sedalia, active members of the Booster club, a club organized to promote home industry, to build up the institutions we already have, are doing their whole duty in that direction? How many merchants, members of the Booster club, are buying their supplies abroad, goods that could be purchased in Sedalia (and oftentimes at a better price), the same quality, the same brand and free delivery? How many members (not merchants) call for home products when giving an order or making a purchase from their grocer or butcher?

Thousands of dollars that could be and would be kept at home go abroad. There are many worthy enterprises in Sedalia, all employing local help that in turn are spending their earnings in Sedalia, and both employer and employee pay taxes in Sedalia, and the money is being used to keep up our city. Further, do we realize that the continuous employment of the men working in our home institutions is dependent wholly on the output thereof? Other cities that are daily growing in wealth and popularity attribute their growth and prosperity to the loyalty of their home people and speak with pride of their home brands of goods and of how by the continuous interchange of patronage they keep their money at home, thus increasing the volume of their business, the value of their real estate, the population of their city, and, best of all, cultivate a sincere feeling of good will toward each other. There are no petty jealousies in these cities. They haven't time for such thoughts, but instead every one seems trying to be bigger than the other fellow by outdoing him in building up his home institutions and town.

Let us give this matter serious consideration and let us all be boosters that boost by giving the goods put up or manufactured in Sedalia preference and so tax our minds with this duty (all things being equal) that we will specify these goods when giving an order. We all have a personal interest in the growth and prosperity of our fair city; hence let us during the year demonstrate by our individual efforts that our interest is sincere and loyal support every home institution, large and small, and then we can truthfully say to the world, "Watch Sedalia grow."—Sedalia (Mo.) Democrat Sentinel.

Children soon get out 'th' grocer that breaks a cracker in two 't' make the scales balance.—Abe Martin in American Magazine.

A Date For Achievement.

Providence, R. I., is another city that is fixing its eyes on a definite date when it shall have adopted and carried out a plan making it a better place to work in and to live in. The town criers in petitioning the mayor and council for the appointment of a city plan commission resolved "that this plan be known as the Providence 1936 plan, culminating on that date in the celebration of the three hundredth anniversary of the founding in Providence of the first home of absolute religious and civic freedom by an exposition of Providence itself as a city beautiful and a city useful, a pleasant and profitable place for all classes, rich and poor, young and old, to live and work in."

Where the Clerk Shines.

Somebody has said, "The clerks can only wait upon the people who come into the store; it's up to the dealer to bring them in." But that is only a half truth. It certainly is largely "up to" the clerk to bring them back, and the clerk who has the making of a merchant in himself is continually "bringing them in" to the store—"his" store, as he considers it.

MURDER LAYS BARE A SCANDAL IN HIGH LIFE

Favorite Lady in Waiting to Queen
Helena Slain.

Rome, March 3.—Princess Giulia Triglona Di Sant Elia, a lady-in-waiting to Queen Helena, who was the wife of Prince Di Sant Elia, was stabbed and killed by Baron Vincenzo Paterno, twenty-four years old, a cavalry lieutenant and a member of a noble Sicilian family. The baron then attempted to commit suicide with a revolver, but failed. He wounded himself so severely, however, that he was taken to a hospital. The tragedy was enacted at the Hotel Rebecchino, a third-rate house, where the baron had engaged a room. Later the princess joined him and they locked themselves in the room. Being unknown to the hotel people, they attracted no attention until the discharge of a revolver startled the attendants. The police were called and they burst in the door of the room. They found the princess dead on the bed. She was undressed and covered with blood. There were two deep gashes in her neck, and beside her body was a bloody hunting knife. The baron was lying on the floor in a swoon with a bullet wound in his head near the ear.

The princess was thirty-six years old, and was one of the most beautiful women in Rome. She was a prominent society leader. She resided at the Quirinal, where she was Queen Helena's favorite lady-in-waiting. The liaison between the princess and the baron having become an open secret, the removal of the princess from the court was threatened, and this threat would have been carried out had it not been for the fact that the king only a short time ago succeeded in persuading the prince to remove his wife.

It is stated that the princess notified the baron that their liaison must be ended, whereupon he insisted upon a farewell meeting. The princess granted this and it took place, with the result that the princess was murdered.

GETTING AT THE FACTS

Court Martial Takes Up the Case of Admiral Barry.

San Francisco, March 3.—A letter from a naval officer at Bremerton says that a courtmartial on Rear Admiral Barry was held at the navy yard there and that much evidence of officers of the West Virginia was taken, although some important testimony was not secured because of the absence of several officers of the vessel who are now at Mare Island. The charges against Barry, which forced his resignation in this city, are unprintable, but the authorities are understood to be determined to get at the bottom of the scandal and to see that the rear admiral does not escape exposure.

Came Near Being His Last Smoke.

Fort Wayne, Ind., March 3.—Frank McCann retired with a lighted cigar in his mouth, and when the fire department burst in the door of his room an hour later they found him unconscious from smoke, while flames were blazing from the cot on which the sleeper lay. He was carried into the open air and revived, and the blaze was extinguished.

Offer Reward For Bank Robbers.

Sterling, Ill., March 3.—A reward of $800 for the arrest of the four men who robbed the Citizens' National bank of Walnut, Ill., has been offered.

BLOOD DISEASES
CONTAGIOUS TROUBLES

Contagious Blood Poison more thoroughly permeates the system than any other disease. Its infectious virus contaminates every corpuscle and tissue of the circulation, and for this reason its symptoms are of a varied nature. When it enters the blood it is but a short time until the mouth and throat begin to ulcerate, the skin becomes spotted, rashes and eruptions appear on the body, sores and ulcers break out, the hair falls, and frequently nails on hands and feet thicken and come off. Mineral medicines which simply shut the poison up in the system should be avoided, for when such treatment is left off the old disease will break out again, often worse than before. S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison permanently, and it does so because it thoroughly purifies the blood. S. S. S. goes into the circulation, and drives out the last trace of the destructive germs, adds richness and vigor to the circulation and allows it to nourish the diseased portions of the body back to health. S. S. S. is purely vegetable, being made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, without a particle of mineral, and its vegetable ingredients always hasten the cure by toning up the stomach and digestive members. Home Treatment book and any medical advice free to all who write.

HENRY HORN'S TACT.

Why He Was Always Selected to Break Painful Tidings.

In the second week of his pastorate in a west side chapel the new minister appointed Henry Horn to make a soothing address to a band of the parish's insurgent workmen. The pastor had never met Henry Horn, because Henry seemed a hard man to corner for a personal interview, but a study of church records had convinced him that Henry possessed infinite tact and was just the man for the delicate mission. The day after he wrote apprising Henry of the new duty laid upon him Henry's wife appeared, pale with apprehension.

"It's out of the question," she said. "Henry can't talk to anybody."

"But he's just the man who can do it," said the pastor. "I chose him for his tact."

"Tact?" said she.

"Yes, tact. The church papers show that last year eight men in the parish who were engaged in hazardous occupations suffered a fatal accident, and in each case Henry Horn was appointed to inform the family of their loss. If he had not been a tactful man he would not have been chosen."

"Oh," said she, "it wasn't on account of his tact; it was his stuttering. It took Henry so long to tell it that the folks found out there was something the matter before he got to the point and were saved the shock of hearing it suddenly."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Another Way Out.

In one of Glasgow's finely laid out cemeteries a rich citizen, who was notorious as a skeptic, had erected a massive mausoleum on what he terms "his ancestral plot." One day he met a worthy elder of the kirk coming away from the vicinity of the imposing mass of masonry, so he said to him, "Weel, Dauid, ye've been up seein' that gran' erection o' mine?"

"Deed hiv I, sir."

"Gey strong place that, isn't it? It'll tak' a mon a' his time tae raise out o' yon at the day o' judgment."

"Hoot, ma mon," said David, "ye can gie yerself little fash about risin' gln that day comes. They'll tak' the bottom oot of it tae let ye fa' doon."

A Disgusted Super.

Sir Henry Irving used to tell a story of a super who had to rush on the stage and give the announcement, "My lord, the king is here!"

Thinking that the man might be afflicted by stage fright, Sir Henry instructed him to shout out the words at the top of his voice. When the cue came the proud and obedient super rushed forward and roared stentoriously:

"My lord, the king is here!"

"Ha! What sayest thou?" cried the famous actor, which happened to be the next line of the play.

A look of intense disgust and disappointment crossed the super's face, and to the delight of the audience he blurted out indignantly:

"Oh, you 'eard right enough!"

Hustling the Clergy.

A newspaper man once connected with a journal in Denver was one day in conversation with his chief when a clerical looking gentleman entered the office.

"Sir," said he gravely, "I intend next Sunday to preach a sermon upon football, and it has occurred to me that an enterprising paper like yours would be pleased to have my manuscript. I have no doubt that any number of your readers would be glad to read it and—"

"All right, all right," interrupted the busy editor, "but you'll have to hustle it along. Get it in early—early, mind! Our sporting page is the first to close."

A Quick Change.

When Victor Murdock arrived in Washington as a new congressman he felt that he had the earth in a sling and that money and expenses were minor considerations. Accordingly he went to the most exclusive hotel he could find and took an elaborate suite of rooms.

So gorgeous were his surroundings that when Mrs. Murdock appeared on the scene she asked him what the charges were.

"Oh, I don't know," replied Murdock unconcernedly. "I guess they're all right."

"At any rate," she suggested, "you'd better go down and ask the clerk."

A few minutes later he returned, rushed into the suite like a cyclone and began to throw things into the trunks. Then he stopped long enough to telephone for a baggage man.

"I've figured it out!" he shouted as he slammed up the receiver. "It's costing us $2.16 every minute we stay here. And we're going to move in a minute."—Washington Star.

NEWSY PARAGRAPHS.

E. L. Mace, of Lexington, was here today in the interest of a law enforcement society. Scott and Jackson counties are in the same judicial circuit, and his plan is to raise a sum of money to be used in securing evidence against "blind tigers." He says that if the law is enforced the people will approve the local option bill, and that it will be a much easier matter to vote the cities and counties "dry."

A Quick Stop.

John Ballard's brother, the judge, was once hearing a case where Lawyer Lawless prosecuted. Lawyer Lawless was notorious for his long windedness. He would sometimes speak for days and days. On this occasion he had been spouting forth his concluding argument for six hours and the end was nowhere in sight when Judge Ballard beckoned his brother John and whispered: "Can't you stop him, Jack?" "I'll stop him in two minutes," John Ballard replied confidently.

And he wrote and passed to Lawyer Lawless the following note:

My Dear Colonel—As soon as you finish your magnificent argument I would like you to join me at the Revere House in a bumper of rare old bourbon.

Lawyer Lawless, halting in the midst of an impassioned period, put on his glasses and read the note that had been handed him; then he removed his glasses again and, taking up his hat and bag, said:

"And now, may it please the court and gentlemen of the jury, I leave the case with you."

A minute later he was proceeding in stately fashion in the direction of the Revere House bar.—Washington Star.

Not Guilty.

Poor Tweedledum was in trouble. He was up before the local magistrate. "Officer," demanded the dispenser of justice, "read the charge." Mumbledum's chest expanded. "Obstructing the traffic by causing a large crowd to assemble in Ditchwater street on the 20th inst., yer worship." "And defense?" rapped out his worship, turning to Tweedledum. Tweedledum cleared his throat. "Sir," he replied, "I happened to appear in my front garden wearing a tie my wife bought me for my birthday, and it got about that I was going to give a comic entertainment. That is all."

DROPSY TREATED FREE

FRANKLIN MILES, M. D., D. L. S. B. The Well Known Heart and Dropsy Specialist Will Send a New $3.75 Treatment Free.

Many "Hopeless" Cases Soon Cured After 5 to 15 Doctors Failed.

At first no disease is apparently more harmless than dropsy, a little swelling of the eyelids, hands, feet ankles or abdomen. Finally there is great shortness of breath, smothering spells, sitting up to breathe, cough, 'tain' spells, some times nausea and vomiting, even bursting of the limbs and a lingering and wretched death if the dropsy is not removed.

Dr. Miles has been known as a leading specialist in these diseases for 30 years. His liberal offer is certainly worthy of serious consideration. You may not have another opportunity.

The Grand Dropsy Treatment consists of four dropsy remedies in one, also Tonic Tablets, and Pura-Laxa for removing the water. This treatment is specially prepared for each patient and is at least ten times as successful as that of most physicians. It relieves usually the first day, and removes swelling in six days in most cases. Delay is dangerous.

Mr. Alexander Milne, Spokane, Wash., cured by two months' treatment. Mr. Sarah A. Boyd, Oelwein, Ia., cured after giving up hope. Mrs. Elvina Sounders, Decatur, Neb., cured after 10 physicians failed. Mrs. Jennie Hubbard, Teague, Mo., cured, whole body swollen, could not lie down. Mr. C. A. Killinger, Shippensburg, Pa., cured after four physicians failed to relieve. Mrs. Julia Bradt, Dulde, Minn., cured after being pronounced incurable by three physicians. Mr. John T. Alexander, Elwood, Ill., cured after 4 failed. Dr. Miles' Book contains a large number of remarkable cures.

All afflicted readers may have the new Dropsy Book Examination Chart, Opinion, Advice, and a $3.75 Treatment free. Write at once. Describe your case. Address Dr. Franklin Miles, Dept. D 975 to 985 Main St., Elkhart Ind.

LIST OF MORTGAGES.

Given to the Assessors of Each Township in the County.

The County Assessor has prepared for the deputy assessors of each township a list of mortgages which will be a valuable aid in making the assessments. The deputies find that many persons forget the entire list of mortgages held by them, and they can be easily reminded by having them named.

The mortgages are prepared according to the townships in which the property is located. This saves the assessor much time when the deputies complete their work, for usually many inquiries are made after the assessors have made their calls.

FOR YOUR HAIR.

Here Are Facts We Want You to Prove At Our Risk.

When the roots of the hair are entirely dead and the pores of the scalp are glazed over, we do not believe that anything can restore hair growth.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic acts scientifically, destroying the germs which are responsible for baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet necessity, is delicately perfumed and will not gum nor permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair and in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it.

We lend our endorsement to Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and sell it on this guarantee, because we believe it is the best hair tonic ever discovered. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it only at our store.—The Rexall Store, The Andrews-Schwenk Drug Co.

Not With Malice.

"Look here," said the head of the firm, "I want to give you a pointer."

"Yes, sir," the office boy respectfully replied.

"If I hear you humming any more popular songs around here I'll discharge you."

"All right. I won't do it no more. I wouldn't do it this time only my lips is sore and I can't whistle."—Chicago Record Herald.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. Cheney & Co. Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
